

Coltsfoot

Scientific: Petasites frigidus var. palmatus

Primary category: Ground cover, flower

Habitat: Forests

Description (by Bosky Dell Natives):

Herbaceous perennial with maple-like leaves (1-2 ft. high) and heads of white to pink flowers that appear very early in spring.

Winter dormant. Coltsfoot spreads by rhizomes and can cover a large area very quickly.

Shade, summer water.

Images of Petasites frigidus

bing.com/images

See all images >

Lewis and Clark's journal entries (by Bosky Dell Natives):

[Empty text area for journal entries]