

Yellow-eyed grass*Scientific:* Sisyrrinchium californicum*Primary category:* Ground cover, flower*Habitat:* Dunes and beaches, Wetlands*Description (by Bosky Dell Natives):*

This species has yellow flowers (late spring, summer) and flesher leaves (10-12"). Re-seeds. Yellow-eyed grass generally grows in wetter areas as well.

Sun/part sun, moderate-regular water.

Images of Sisyrrinchium californicum

bing.com/images

See all images >

Lewis and Clark's journal entries (by Bosky Dell Natives):